

Get in the Game and Help Donate One Million Books to Kids in Need!

Dear Teacher,

I was excited to recently find out about a unique program from Scholastic Book Clubs called ClassroomsCare and just wanted to make sure you knew about it.

ClassroomsCare encourages kids to read while learning the value of helping others. Each participating class has a goal to read 100 books. When they do, Scholastic Book Clubs will donate one million books to kids in need!

Plus, this year NFL superstar quarterbacks Peyton and Eli Manning are the ClassroomsCare Ambassadors of Reading, so I think kids will be really enthusiastic about being involved. To get started, just go to:

www.scholastic.com/classroomscare and sign up your class to read for Team Peyton or Team Eli.

The site will also feature exclusive video messages from Peyton and Eli, classroom activities, sweepstakes, and other cool stuff. A FREE ClassroomsCare Kit will arrive with your first Book Club order this September or October, which includes a Huge Poster to track your progress.

ClassroomsCare sounds like a great way to get kids excited about reading and I would love for my child to be a part of it. I hope your class will be a "class that cares"!

Sincerely,

Peyton and Eli Manning,
NFL Quarterbacks and ClassroomsCare Ambassadors of Reading
